

Plan Fall Fashion Event

'Autumn Artistry' Theme Slated for Saturday's Style Selection

Smart styles for the mature teenager and chic fashions for married women will be shown at the Sept. 12 "Autumn Artistry" benefit fashion show.

The fashion event and dinner will be held at the Redondo Second Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, 101 N. Broadway, Redondo Beach.

Proceeds from the fall style preview will supplement the church's yearly financial funds.

Gay splashes of material pouring forth from the artist's palette and accented with the embellishment of bright flowers will enhance the beauty of the decor surrounding the fete. Special entertainment will be presented at intervals.

The latest exclusive women's fashions will be featured from Minty's Women's Wear, 3743 240th St.

Clothing will be modeled by Mrs. Ralph Wood and Mrs. Albert J. Windsor of Torrance and Mmes. Darrold Meyers, J. Edward Saunders, Michael Hansen, Dewey Cottle and Franklin E. Smith.

Junior models will be Misses Patty Hutton, Carmen Weymouth of Torrance, Linda Smith and Carol Saunders.

Showing the fact that boys' and men's styles are also tops for fall will be Randy Zaragosa, Ralph Wood, Jim Grimes and John Otten.

Final plans for the style show were discussed at a recent church luncheon. Those attending were Mmes. H. W. Waggoner, William Weymouth, David Hannemann, J. Powell, Elliot D. Smith and Arthur Finer.

Torrance Woman's Club Holds Federation Meet

A meeting for all Federation chairmen of the Torrance Woman's Club, C.F.W.C., was held Thursday at the Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Following a social coffee period, Mrs. Joseph P. Bay, Federation extension secretary, introduced Mrs. Karl E. Bishop, second vice-president of the Marina District 18, and Mrs. Lee A. McCoy, Federation secretary, speakers of the day.

Mrs. Bishop urged all chairmen to attend the workshops held for their departments during the year. She cautioned them against a negative attitude when talking to club members and giving reports, and said that if they made the reports as interesting as possible, club members would be more anxious to listen to them. "Make them brief and right to the point" was the advice she offered.

She stressed the importance of originality in yearly reports and urged trying for some of the awards offered.

Mrs. McCoy spoke of district competition and handling of procedure books. She stressed the value of complete reports and the fact that there are 21 other clubs to compete with.

She explained judging and what judges look for in reports, discussed city beautification projects coming up soon in Torrance, and mentioned what some of the other clubs already had done this year.

She said that it was the smaller clubs that we would have to watch, those with under 150 members, as they seemed to be real go-getters.

In closing, she invited all present to two workshops which were to be held at the Torrance clubhouse Sept. 17, one on Federation and parliamentary law and the other on Federation extension.

Those attending included Mmes. John Thuss, president, and the following Federation chairmen: Don E. Wolf, American citizenship and civil defense; John Warnock Jr., American home and safety; Howard E. Altermatt, art; A. E. Palmer, A. G. Solomon, Bible and spiritual values; J. E. Stavert, California history and landmarks; H. G. Stephens, community improvement and civic awards.
